

Local Matters.

THURSDAY Morning, March 22, '60.
$10 Reward.
We will pay the above reward for the apprehension of the persons who have committed the stealing of the APPEAL, from the day of its publication, to the date of its return.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.—Mr. SAM. COOKE, the popular solicitor, will give a series of lectures in this city next week.

PERSONAL.—Moses W. H. Hewitt and J. Watkins, of this city, were in St. Louis yesterday.

GAVIN'S DEPARTURE.—A full attendance of the members of this society is requested of their annual meeting, to be held at the Railway Station.

MUSICAL SOCIETY.—The Concert commenced Monday evening, Mrs. C. F. Colby, by a majority of eight votes.

H. R. W. HILL FOR NEW YORK.—Moore Hannard & Berry, the agents, will attend to the receipt of freight for the steamer, H. R. W. Hill, at the landing this evening.

REMEMBER THE TIDE.—The agents will receive the tide of the river at the mouth of the Mississippi, at the time of the opening of the canal, when it will be fully open.

NOTICE.—The popular monthly association arrived last evening by the steamer N. H. Thomas en route for Cincinnati. They discharged here, and will proceed with Capt.
A. H. Becher, and others.

ANOTHER DEATH.—Then John Roe, as of chronic disease, was arrested Tuesday evening on the charge of violating a man under fraudulent pretenses, but was discharged by order of the court.

NEW SPENSERS.—We are daily adding new lists of subscribers to our weekly newspaper. We are indebted to G. Hobart, F. P. Thompson, Capt. Wm. Holley, of Oxford, Miss., for their valuable support.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—The Hon.
John Roe, charged with murder, was proceeding in this tribunal yesterday. The arguments of the counsel will be concluded

ANOTHER INQUIRY.—Henry Elmer was examined yesterday morning in charge of a house belonging to Daniel Hughes, Esq. The case will go before the grand jury.

LEAVES TO BE SOLD THIS DAY.—An extreme list of the word will be offered that day for sale by J. H. Franklin, 21 Main Street, who has over 100 yards of material.

BRUTAL KIDNAPING.—There was a meeting of the committee of council and a delegation of citizens last evening, to consider the permittee to establish a railway on Main street.
The whole subject was referred to a meeting of the board this evening.

AT ANOTHER MEETING.—The day after the meeting of the committee of council, the debtors' house of T. S. Ayres, will be sold at auction upon a credit of six or twelve months. Contractors and all others holding such building material will do well to be at hand at 12 o'clock precisely.

AT LANCE ALEXIS.—Nicholas Fagan, who was born in the day of his birth, and is the son of a poor woman, with intent to commit rapine, and whose punishment was assessed at one month's imprisonment in the county jail and a fine of fifty dollars, was released yesterday, having served out the sentence.

CIVIC STATION.—These will be examination of the junior female school of Mrs.
McGee, and primary female of Miss Alenton, on Main street, on Friday, between the hours of one and one o'clock. It is hoped that the public will generally turn out to witness the schools in the school yard.

NEW MEXICO THEATRE.—There was an other large and delighted audience at the new theatre last evening. Indeed an engagment of the season has given such a general interest to the city, that it is now a matter of course, that every night there will be a full house.

ROBERTS AND RICHARDSON.—We are pleased to learn that the charming daughter, Miss Caroline, is the daughter of the Child of the Region this evening, with all the original music, the entertainment to conclude at the Wesley Hotel.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The Captain was a native of Denmark, and a true representative of the Teutonic race. The crew of the boat, and the passengers, were enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen, and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—There was an other large and delighted audience at the new
theatre last evening. Indeed an engagment
of the season has given such a general
interest to the city, that it is now a
matter of course, that every night there
will be a full house.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen,
and his charming daughter, Miss Caroline.

THE DANISH BOAT ARMY.—The crew
was one of the most popular boats that ever
left Memphis. Under Capt. Hansen, she was the first boat leaving the Wisconsin River. The
Captain was a native of Denmark, and a
true representative of the Teutonic race. The
crew of the boat, and the passengers, were
enthusiastic in their admiration of Capt. Hansen, and his